

IDEAS

Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, & Access Opportunities

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. WEEK

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Week (MLK Week) is a platform to engage students, faculty, staff, trainees and community members in critical conversations around contemporary Civil Rights issues and race in America.

REFRAMING THE CONVERSATION

The Reframing the Conversation monthly series brings together campus and community experts to spark important conversations around racism, othering, and safety.

FRIDAY FORUMS ON RACISM IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Friday Forums gather national thought leaders to guide discussions and provide opportunities to share ideas on actionable items towards a diverse, equitable, and inclusive campus.