CORE CURRICULUM & EMPHASES

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Communication offers a B.A. or B.S. in Communication with four emphases: Strategic Communication (public relations, advertising, integrated marketing); Journalism (digital, broadcast, print); Communication Studies; and Science, Health, Environmental, and Risk Communication. Regardless of your emphasis, a major in communication will provide you with knowledge on ethical communication, persuasion, social influence and social responsibility. Paired with improved skills in writing and speaking, you will be highly competitive in the job market.

Students will be required to complete the core curriculum (5 courses, 13+ credits) and one of the four emphases (13 courses, 39+ credits). Students must complete a total of 120 credit hours to earn their Bachelor's degree. 40 of those credit hours must be upper division (3000-level or higher). Students may need to complete additional courses outside of general education and major requirements in order to meet total required hours.

The Office of Admissions determines whether transfer courses are accepted at the University of Utah, but Academic Advisors can help determine which Communication courses may fulfill major requirements.
